Daily Nevada State Journal.

C. POWNING, Editor and Proprietor.

STATE SENATOR FOLEY.

The JOURNAL does not exactly understand the reasons which have prompted the Gazette to open its batteries upon M. D. Foley, and to declare that if nominated by the Republicans of Washoe county for the State Senate a cat load of money would not elect him. For some time past the Gazette has vindictively assailed Mr. Foley, and without just cause or provocation, and has published matters concerning him which were a breach of secret obligations. Mr. Foley has his faults. No man is perfect. But he has never done ought to the people of Washoe that calls for a tirade of abuse. For eight years he has been a State Senator from Eureka county, and as a Senator of the State he stands above reproach. He was always a legislator for the people, and generally very active in their support. His aim was ever in the direction of measures of retrenchment and reform, and we do not call to mind now that he was ever interested in any "job," or anything against the people of Nevada. He generally stood by Washoe, and to his one vote are the people of this county indebted, somewhat, for the University at Reno. Without that vote the bill could not have passed when it did. Three years ago Mr. Foley became closely identified with this section. He and his friends established the Bank of Nevada. He and his friends bought the English Mill property, and the alfalfa now grows where before naught but sagebrush and rocks were to be seen. He has money invested in other property here, and is doing his full share in sustaining and building up this section. The underlying motive to create a prejudice against him is beyond our ken. As a matter of fact there is not a man in Washoe county better equipped by experience to represent Washoe in the State Senate. As a matter of fact if nominated by the Republican County Convention Mr. Foley will be elected State Senator by 200 majority. As a matter of fact the Republican County Convention of Washoe will be composed of 98 representative men and Republicans, and the JOURNAL has the utmost faith that they will select the best men for the various offices, and that the ticket so selected will be elected from top to bottom.

"WHY THEY WANT IT."

The Enterprise says that the JOURNAL "merely wails a Constitutional Convention and does not tell any person what change a convention can make that will justify the expense and uncertainty of so large a public movement." Why, bless your mistaken soul, the JOURNAL has repeatedly enumerated the necessary and economic changes that could be effected by a Constitutional Convention, and shown conclusively that under such constitutional revision as it has suggested the expenses of the State and county governments would be reduced, at least one-third from the present cost of keeping their machinery in motion. This and other papers in the State have explained the matter so often that the subject is threadbare, and we had supposed that every man, woman and child in the State, who takes any interest whatever in public affairs, fully understood it and needed no further information upon that feature of the question. It appears, however, that the Enterprise is still in the dark and is seeking light, so we will briefly summarize some of the changes proposed in the address submitted to the Board of Trade, but which had previously, every one of them, been the rounds of the Nevada press during the last five or six years.

First the abolishment of the Supreme Court, and the requirement of the four District Judges to perform the few weeks' extra work each year, which is now costing the people of the State $18,000 annually to have done.

The consolidation of the offices of Secretary of State and Clerk of the Supreme Court, the combined duties of which would keep a man of fair business and clerical ability reasonably busy about four or five hours a day, would save $3,000 a year, and by dispensing with the Secretary's Deputy who now does all of the work, $4,000 more, making an aggregate of $5,000 in these two offices alone.

We would limit the Governor's salary to $3,000 a year and dispense with his Private Secretary, which a Nevada Governor needs, except during the legislative sessions, about as much as a bud-carrier needs a valet. Here would be a saving of $5,400 in that department which is now being expended for services which do not employ one man on an average an hour a day the year round.

A Lieutenant Governor at an annual cost of $2,750 is as useless an appendage to the State as a brass band to a barber shop. This office we would consign to perpetual retirement.

The duties of State Superintendent, barring the annual visitations which this officer is supposed to make, could easily be performed by the Controller and insure the annual retention in the treasury of $3,000 which is now expended to but very little purpose.

By District Attorneys following their cases to the Supreme Court, as in some other and twenty times larger States, the expensive luxury of an Attorney General at an expense of $3,000 a year could be easily dispensed with.

These are only few of the list of scores of reforms that could be effected by constitutional revision. We only give them as samples to enable the Enterprise editor to form some idea of the magnitude of the aggregate, and if he will take the trouble to follow them up in the address to which we have referred, and which is published in the JOURNAL of the 13th inst., we opine that he will make no further inquiry as to "what changes can be made to justify the expense of a Constitutional Convention?"

SUB-IRRIGATION.

The Oregon Standard has the following: Were several of the leading citizens of Nevada to take pains enough to introduce the Cole system of agriculture into their State it would doubtless take such forward steps as would put an end to all question of its continuing Statehood. This system of sub-irrigation, wherever adopted on the most barren hills, results in making large areas constantly richer. It is practicable wherever there is a hill or mountain side or any decline of surface and but a single shower of rain per year or an inch or two of snowfall. It has for ages been used in portions of Central Asia, otherwise uninhabitable. A ditch cut across any declining ground so as to catch all the waters above insures in time a region below it constantly moist, growing continually richer on account of the fertilizing chemicals, absorbed by the water running over the surface above the ditch, and deposited through the soil below. The thinnest, poorest soils become, thus enormously productive. Experiments during the past twenty years at various parts of the East prove the excellence of this system over all others. In time it will be adopted all through the West, because the people are learning, even in Missouri and Kansas, that it will not do to depend entirely on rains in their hot, cloudless seasons. Let Nevada start in this and become famous as agriculturists.

Despite Shakespeare, there is a great deal in a name. Eugene Field, one of the cleverest of American journalists and poets, is now in London as correspondent of the Chicago News. His letters are largely composed of old stories and reminiscences which are familiar to almost every reader of newspapers—stories which are fatherless and motherless, and which have traveled the rounds of journalism for 10, these many years. Yet Field unblushingly signs his name to them, and the News pays him a handsome price per letter. It is strange that a man of Field's undoubted ability should so far forget his pride in his profession.

The amended Alien Labor bill, as presented to the House last week, is an improvement upon the present law by being more stringent where its effect is desirable, and relieving cases to which it was never really intended that the original law should apply. As the present Act is administered it has, in many cases, been made ridiculous. Of course it will always be possible to evade any such law in a measure by encouraging foreign laborers to come to the country with the tacit understanding that work will be given them, but the new bill does more than the old to prevent such action through advertising, etc.

Referring to the fact that the San Jose Convention was boss-ridden and "free and untrammelled in nothing," the San Francisco Bulletin puts the California campaign contest into a nutshell when it says: "The contest in the State this year will be as much between bossism and the free and untrammelled action of the convention as between Democracy and Republicanism. It is only because we call some things by wrong names that such a spectacle as that of a convention prostrate in the dust at the feet of a single man is tolerated at all."

The Idaho Republican State Convention nominated the following ticket: Governor, George L. Shoup, of Lemhi; Lieutenant Governor, N. B. Wiley, of Idaho county; for Congressman, Willis Sweet, of Latah; Secretary of State, A. J. Pinkham, of Alturas; State Auditor, George Robethan, of Bligham; State Treasurer, F. H. Coffin, of Boise City.

California's paucity charge that the Democratic gubernatorial candidate owes his nomination to Buckley. All the blind bores siphon don't drain that Pond dry before the election, there will be something wrong with the California Democratic system of pneumatic and hydraulics. There won't be enough left of him to make a pool of.

The Argonaut considers the ticket put up by the Republican State Convention of California the strongest presented in many years.

Candelaria Croppings.

Chloride Belt, August 23.

The ore train makes two trips daily. One to Sudaville and one to Belleville.

The flies have captured the town. It is a safe bet, two to one that each house contains a million of the pests.

The Holmes Co.'s mill at Belleville, is now under full blast, dropping 20 stamps on their ore.

How is it that there comes to this office at one time seven and eight Reno JOURNALS and Gazettes, all of different dates? Our mail service badly needs looking after.

The Indian Queen mine is looking well and a large quantity of rich ore is being taken out. This is the richest mine in Esmeralda county, the ore milling way up in the hundreds right along.

The miners of the Mt. Diablo, Holmes, Georgene and Mountain Queen mines have signed a petition asking that the wages be raised to $3.50 per day. The different companies have until the 7th of September to accede to the demands of the petitioners.

Col. W. J. Sutherland arrived on Thursday night's train direct from London. Mr. Sutherland made an inspection of the Holmes mine and was more than pleased with the outlook. He leaves on a special to-morrow for San Francisco. After a week's absence he will return and remain with us for a month.

A Would-be Train Wrecker Arrested.
Mike McQuillan, the man arrested for placing rocks on the railroad track, had his examination before Justice Liggett last Thursday. The evidence, says the Truckee Republican, was wholly circumstantial but convincing. He was put off a freight train, and threatened to get even and throw stones at the engine. He went up the track and overtook a man named August Heekbert and together they walked along. The latter testified that in walking along McQuillan would drop behind him occasionally and he would run along and catch up. They met train 7 just east of the second snowshed. It was within 200 feet of where the obstruction was struck. They went on and just afterwards the second section of No. 7 struck a rock on the track and about 50 feet east of the snowshed, which had been placed after the first section had passed. The two trains were only ten minutes apart. There was some other testimony and together a pretty close case was made out. The only defense offered by Quillan was that he was drunk and did not know what happened. He was held to answer before the Superior Court with bonds placed at $1,500. He was taken to jail.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. feb. 21-swf-ly

Dayton Notes.

Times, August 23.
A gang of 17 Chinamen went out to work on the lower end of the C. & O. road last Wednesday morning. They are putting in a new wood track.

Mason valley and Wabuska district is reported to be more strongly Republican than ever this year, and word comes from there that the Bourbon Democracy will be astonished when the votes are counted this Fall. Senator Forbes of Esmeralda county, was a passenger on last Wednesday's train bound for Hawthorne. The gentleman is said to have the inside track for the office of State Senator.

About 75 workmen are now stationed at this place. They hold nightly service at some one of the saloons and secure converts every evening. There will be over 100 men here next week.

Still Fighting Silver.

New York, Aug. 25.—The charge is repeated by the Mail and Express that brokers here are discriminating against silver certificates by refusing them against purchasers of foreign exchange, and it says that some certificates passed during the week at the rate of twenty cents per hundred. The same paper also says that while silver is fast appreciating in value, there is already a distinct tendency toward enforcing a gold standard. It is known that during the past week foreign money could have been borrowed under the stipulation for principal and interest in gold coin, and the loan was not made because of a refusal to agree to that.

Justice Court.

John Doe, a shepherd indulged too copiously in Reno dip, and damaged the peace and dignity of the commonwealth to the amount of $10, which was the amount of his fine.

James Wilson, a Mexican, for disciplining his wife in a manner forbidden by the statutes and the ethics of Reno society, was ordered to jail until 10 o'clock a. m. to-day, when His Honor will tell him how much longer to stay there.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own brand of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other.

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." Mrs. ELLA A. GORR, at Terrace Street, Boston.

A Maine Fish Yarn.
A good fish story is told regarding a recent party while at Moosehead. "It was 'high 12,' the sun was darting its rays upon the clouds above them, while the condensed vapor was dropping down as they angled from the steamer's sides, rocked by the billows of the lake. A sudden jerk upon the line of one of the party told him that business had begun. The guide was standing near, and with a stentorian voice exclaimed: 'Hold him! don't lose him! he is actually a five footer, (meaning the fish). As soon as hooked this monster (with spots) darted for somewhere known only to those dwelling beneath the surface of the lake, and whether he ever arrived there is still clouded in mystery."
"One thing is positive, he reeled off 800 feet of line, tore it from the rod and left the fisherman with only a portion of the tackle. Others in the boat were anxious spectators, and as the line parted company with rod and man they caught him in their arms, gently bore him to the cabin and headed the boat for shore. By good nursing he in a few moments regained consciousness and expressed himself as very grateful to his rescuers for saving him from a cold bath in the waters of this beautiful lake. It is evident that larger boats, stouter lines and more expensive apparatus must be used to handle these monsters of the deep."—Lewiston Journal.

An Enchanted House.

A house in the Avenue de Saxe at Lyons is just now exercising the minds of the more superstitious section of the inhabitants to an extraordinary extent. Every evening large crowds take up a position in front of the building, which they contemplate with curiosity not unmixed with awe, and its tenants are leading anything but a happy life. The house is acquiring rapidly a reputation for being haunted, or, as the people call it, "enchanted," since at intervals the sounds of mysterious rappings and tapings—which at last grow so strong as to cause the very planks and windows to quake and shake—penetrate even to the ears of the outside public.

The police have overhauled the place, peeped into all the cupboards, tried the ceilings and walls and put the furniture into a general state of confusion without arriving at any solution of the mystery, though there was some method in the antics of the "ghost," who treated himself to a spell of rest while the inspector was on the spot. Nothing daunted, however, the police are continuing their efforts actively, and as they are determined to detect the author of this grim joke it is probable that the worthy Lyonaise will soon be initiated into the mysteries of the maison enchantée.—Paris Letter.

Her Duel with the Doctor.

An extraordinary duel is reported to have taken place in Vienna. A few days ago a girl, aged 18, challenged a young doctor who had offended one of her friends and refused to apologize. He was challenged in the usual way by two seconds, a student and an officer of reserves, and when he ridiculed the idea the girl threatened to horsewhip him publicly.

The challenge was then accepted and a meeting, with seconds and doctors, took place in a hired room in a Vienna suburb. All the rules for a duel with swords were strictly observed. The doctor first acted on the defensive, but was soon obliged to fight in earnest, and left off after the second round with a wound in the left side, which was declared not to be dangerous. The girl, a Croatian educated in South America, is said by the seconds to be the best fencer they ever saw. After wounding her adversary she left the place without casting another look at him.—Wiener Tagblatt.

We Have All Met Them.

The season is now at hand when you are apt to run against those two persistent faddists, the horse man and the yachting man. If you escape one of them for a day you are certain to fall a victim to the other. The horse man tells you about his experience. Perhaps he will go so far as to give you a "sure tip" for today. The yachting man, if he owns a boat, describes his rigging for this season and prattles about jibs, center boards, legs, stays, beats to windward and other topics of equal interest to a land lubber. They are rather harmless in their way, these talkative enthusiasts, but they never seem to realize that they may become just a trifle wearisome at times.—New York World.

Garfield's Sons.

James A. Garfield has been spending a few days in this city, having come upon a triple mission. He grows to resemble his father physically, as he is said to do intellectually, more than any of the other children. The resemblance, however, is not so apparent when he is obliged to use his eyes closely, because he has been compelled to wear spectacles. With his brother Harry he has established a law business in Cleveland, and if the clients are all of them men and corporations of such consequence as those whose interests compelled him in part to visit this city the Garfield boys have certainly done amazingly well.—New York Cor. Philadelphia Press.

An Au Sable thief went to a widow's barn the other night and milked the widow's cow. Next morning that poor widow found a pocket book containing $1.17 in the stall and advertises for the loser to come forward, prove property, return the milk and get his cash.

Senator Hearst's Washington house contains seventy rooms. So far $170,000 has been spent in furnishing it, and this is said to be only a beginning. Thirty years ago the senator occupied an attic room in a Missouri farm house, where he was working for his board.

A monster crab was landed in a net from a wharf in San Diego by L. C. Bragg. The body measured 16 inches across, while the spread of the upper was 36 inches. The giant crustacean was ornamented with barnacles of five years' growth.

BREVITIES.

Bar silver, 118 1/4.
Palo Alto is a ground burner.
The Supreme Court is in session at Carson.

Only a little probate business in the District Court yesterday.

The Riverside Company is erecting a wheat elevator at their mill.

Paint your house with the best mixed paints. Sold by Lange & Schmitt.

Secretary of State John Dorrer arrived from San Francisco yesterday and went on to Carson.

Charles Goli, a pioneer butcher of Eureka in this State, died at Oklahoma City on the 14th inst.

Go to Lange & Schmitt for garden hose, garden tools, and agate ware. Largest stock in the city.

The Storey delegation to the Republican State Convention is said to be solid for only one candidate, and that is Judge Rising.

Henry Mayenbaum and District Attorney W. D. Jones, of Austin, arrived on Monday's number 4 and left yesterday morning for Carson.

The list of Democratic delegates published yesterday should have been credited to the Second instead of the Third Ward, as it was erroneously printed.

There appears to be some difference of opinion among the Reno Democrats whether the State Convention should be held at the Opera House or at the Pavilion.

The Times-Review says the fight for the Republican nomination for Secretary of State is believed to be between Bob Hamill, of Elko, and Alfred Helm, of Ormsby.

George I. Lamson came down from Virginia last night on his way to San Francisco. When he returns he will go on to Boston to attend the Grand Lodge of the Red Men.

Mrs. C. Novacovich and little daughter, Miss Vera, Miss Agnes Bell and Miss Mamie Bell returned from California yesterday morning, and are very glad to be at home again.

Fourteen recruits for the United States Artillery passed west yesterday morning on their way from New York to the Presidio, where they will be assigned to some company in that vicinity.

Walter B. Harrah, a pioneer of Eureka in this State, but now a resident of Oakland Cal., arrived here yesterday and went on to Dayton, where he resided in the early days of Nevada.

The Republican delegates from White Pine county to the State Convention are, A. C. Cleveland, H. A. Comins, W. N. McGill, J. B. Williamson, O. H. Gray, J. Cameron, H. Buskard, E. Pomeroy.

The Carson Tribune says that the five ex-Congressman Horace F. Page died recently in San Francisco. It certainly is to be hoped that the departed ex-Congressman lives in another and a better world.

Carson Tribune: Senator Evan Williams' fast pace, Dick Kelly, was taken to Sacramento on Saturday to participate in the State Fair and other races. The colt promises to be a surprise for California horsemen.

The Miners' Unions of Storey and Lyon have interviewed the mining Superintendent of the Comstock and obtained permission for every miner on the lode, who may desire to do so, to attend their picnic at Deadway's Park on September 6th.

The delegates to the Republican State Convention from Eureka are Thos. Wren, B. Glumac, W. J. Smith, F. M. Heitmann, John Torre, W. J. Tenkin, C. Rosette, G. Cornejo, M. Schartzstein, J. L. East, D. Falcoer, A. Frazer, P. Blunt and E. Currow.

Attorney A. E. Cheney, of Eureka, was in town yesterday and will leave for Carson today. He will remain in the western part of the State until after the Republican State Convention, where his name will probably be presented for one of the District Judgeships.

Ex-Sheriff Dan D. Donovan died suddenly last Saturday at his rooms at Virginia City. His death was caused by hemorrhage of the lungs. He was one of the best known and most popular men in Storey county. He was a Royal Arch Mason and a member of the A. O. U. W.

A. O. U. W.

The Grand Lodge of A. O. U. W., which convened at Salt Lake City last week, authorized Montana to form a separate jurisdiction, to take effect next January. This will leave the Nevada jurisdiction with 2,300 members and the Montana jurisdiction with 1,600 members, at present, but the numbers will doubtless be increased before January. The next session of the Grand Lodge will be held at Ogden.

Mines to be in Demand.

Though the advance in silver in consequence of the stringency of the money market, has not yet benefited this State to any extent, says the Silver State, there is more activity in mining and no doubt the demand for silver mines will be greater than it has been for many years. With silver at par the population of Nevada should increase at least one-third in the next six months.

REPUBLICANS AND SILVER.

What Leading Nevada Republicans Have Done for the White Metal.

The National Silver Committee appointed at St. Louis to push the fight for silver has made a report. The Appeal makes a few extracts to show the part taken in the silver fight by men whom the Democratic press of Nevada are trying to prove have been lukewarm in the contest.

It says:

JONES.

Probably no one on either side of the ocean has done more to enlighten and direct public opinion on the silver question than Senator Jones, of Nevada, beginning with his first silver speech in Congress, and the report of the Silver Commission, which was mainly his work, down to the last great speech in the Senate this session, which is in itself an exhaustive treatise on the money question.

STEWART.

Nor has Senator Stewart been behind in his efforts in behalf of silver. Ever ready and always aggressive, he has kept up agitation in the Senate, when without him the silver question might have been allowed to sleep.

BARTINE.

When the Senate bill providing for free coinage went to the House a strong effort was made by the friends of free coinage to secure a direct vote on it; but unfortunately party considerations were invoked and restrictive rules resorted to prevent discussion or a vote fairly expressive of the views of members. For, undoubtedly, the real sentiments of a majority of members, as well as of a vast majority of the people they represent, are in favor of the restoration of silver to unlimited coinage. Such uncompromising advocates of free coinage as Bland and others of that side of the House can, of course, always be counted on to vote for such a measure. A few representatives on the other side, as Bartine, of Nevada, whose labors have been incessant in committee and out for free coinage, Town and, Carter, Morrow, Claude and De Haven courageously voted their sentiments, while others, although expressing themselves as in favor of free coinage, cast their votes against the adoption of the Senate Free Coinage Bill.

NEWLANDS.

Mr. Newlands, of Nevada, also took a leading part in the direction of the work of the committee, and through the press and by public addresses effectively opposed bullion redemption, and forcibly and clearly presented the arguments in favor of silver.

FITCH.

Public meetings were held in several of the large cities, which were addressed by the Hon. Thos. Fitch, an eloquent orator and Vice Chairman of the Committee.

Democratic Delegates.

The following is the list of delegates for State and County Convention delegates agreed upon by the Democrats of the three Reno wards last Monday night.

First Ward—State—Charles A. Jones and Richard Ryland. County—V. F. Lalot, Hugh Campbell, J. N. Bakelers, Thomas Hayden, Joseph Frey and James Carroll.
Second Ward—State—Alex Aguiar, J. C. Hagerman, Ben. C. Shearer, A. White. County—H. A. Waldo, G. LaForge, P. H. Mulcahy, J. M. Cunningham, Fred W. Hagerman, Benjamin Titus, H. E. Davis, O. H. Perry, James Long, Peter Martinov, W. F. Golden, W. D. R. Graham, W. A. Wimer, Hiram Sample, S. Enrich, H. Bergstein, Henry F. Rabe, C. F. M. Lange.

Third Ward—State—D. O'Keeffe, J. J. Butler, F. Lemmons and R. S. Osborn. County—F. O. Updike, W. N. Knox, S. Jacobs, H. Davis, Jr., Wm. Dixon, J. Burke, B. Campbell, J. B. Cain, James O'Neill, H. Morris, F. R. Lewis, C. Gulding, H. Berry, J. G. Kerth, T. A. Reed, H. Orr and S. W. Peck.

There was no contest except in the Third Ward, where the nominations were made by ballot, there being a larger number of aspirants to delegations than the Ward's pro rata.

A Strike Impending.

The demand of the brakemen and conductors of the Southern Pacific Company for better wages, has not yet been given extended notice by the press and but little notice has been taken of it by the public. The situation is, however, more serious than reported. The Truckee Republican is informed that all of the conductors and brakemen are in the fight and the demand for higher wages extends over the entire S. P. system. It was reported in the papers that the dissatisfaction existed only on one division. This is not true—all the divisions are in the fight from Ogden to El Paso. A committee of one representative from each division is now in San Francisco urging the demand. In case of a refusal of the demands, or of a compromise, a strike will be ordered which will call out brakemen, conductors, firemen and engineers and switchmen and will involve the Southern Pacific system. It will be the most stupendous strike ever witnessed on the coast. The situation is really serious.

Encouraging for Eureka.

Attorney J. G. Judge came in from Eureka and left yesterday morning for Carson. He says that the Eureka Con. Company will hereafter reduce ores at low rates as are charged at Salt Lake, thereby saving the producers the cost of transportation, which will be great encouragement to the miners of the district. The Eureka Con. has also raised the rate of wages at their mine from $3 to $3.50 per day. The prospects for Eureka are evidently improving.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES.

At a Meeting of the Republican County Central Committee, at Washoe county on the above date, it was ordered that a
